

OREGON PRIMA OFFERS THE GARY DEVERELL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Gary Deverell was a passionate, dedicated advocate for excellence in public Risk Management. He worked for over 30 years in the public sector in Oregon, most recently as Risk Manager at the City of Gresham. Gary mentored countless others. He served eight years on the Oregon PRIMA Board, including a term as President from 2002 through 2003.

Oregon PRIMA is pleased to offer a $500 scholarship in Gary's name to cover costs to attend Oregon PRIMA's Annual Conference. Applicants must be an Oregon public sector employee with Risk Management responsibilities.

Applicants are required to complete the Gary Deverell Memorial Scholarship Application. There is no limit to the length of responses but brevity and conciseness will be noted. Applicants are also required to attach a current copy of their resume.

The Oregon PRIMA Board will judge all applications and announce the winner prior to the Annual Conference. Decisions of the Board are final and not subject to appeal.
